

EcoTarium® Passes Now Available

Library patrons can now reserve EcoTarium® museum passes at the Taft Library. The EcoTarium® is a museum dedicated to science and nature through discovery. In addition to the permanent and traveling exhibits, the EcoTarium® continually offers special events and programs for all ages. The museum even offers outdoor excitement with a wildflower meadow, nature trails, animal exhibits and train ride.

Please check the web site at www.ecotarium.org or call (508) 929-2700 for more information.
 Note: Certain EcoTarium® events and programs may require an additional fee not covered by the library pass. Please call or check the web site for rates.

Take a look at just some of the wonderful events the EcoTarium® is currently offering:

Tree Canopy Walkway Open weekends starting May 26. Daily June 26-Sept. 2
 A series of platforms, decks and bridges suspended 40 feet high. Adults and children alike can explore species living high above where we normally can't see or reach.

Attack of the Bloodsuckers Now Open
 Learn all about your favorite (and not so favorite) skin-crawling insects and creatures in this special hands-on exhibit.

Secrets of Circles Opens May 26
 Discover the science, math, art and culture of the circles everywhere in our world. This is a hands-on exhibit with many fun activities—great for families with kids 3-10.

The Alden Digital Planetarium Check for show dates and times
 Blast into outer space in the new Alden Digital Planetarium – a multi-sensory experience. Featuring:

- Passport to the Universe
- The Problem with Pluto
- Secret of the Cardboard Rocket
